Jury Trial Demanded ☒ - Non-Jury Trial ☐

1. BRIEF PRELIMINARY STATEMENT. State briefly and in ordinary language the facts and positions of the parties (appropriate for use during jury selection in jury cases).

The parties to this case are Century Surety Company, the Plaintiff, and Shayona Investment, LLC, the Defendant.

This is a case involving a dispute concerning claims made under an insurance contract. Century Surety issued a commercial insurance policy to Shayona, which insured a hotel owned by Shayona from October 19, 2011 to October 19, 2012. The hotel, known as the Cinderella Inn, is located at 623 Kickapoo Spur in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Under the policy, Century Surety agreed that if the Cinderella Inn suffered a direct physical loss or damage because of a covered loss which occurred during the policy period, Century Surety would pay the actual cost to repair or replace the damaged property, up to the policy limit, subject to Shayona cooperating with Century Surety in its investigation of the claim and providing documentation of its losses.

Shayona claims that while the policy was in force, the Cinderella Inn suffered damage due to the vandalism of Dietrich's Club, a bar located within the Cinderella Inn, on October 30, 2011. Shayona submitted a claim to Century Surety for what it claimed were its losses and damages, and Century Surety paid Shayona for the vandalism claim although whether it paid all that was due on the claim is disputed.

Shayona also claims that while the policy was force, the property suffered hail damage in a hail storm that occurred on May 29, 2012. Shayona submitted a claim to Century Surety for what it claimed were its losses and damages from that hail storm, and Century Surety made payments to Shayona for the hail claim although whether Century Surety paid all that was due upon the claim is disputed.

Century Surety claims that Shayona has breached conditions to coverage under the policy by failing to provide requested documentation of its losses, by submitting claim documents which do not truthfully reflect damage to the motel during the policy period or the true cost to repair that damage, and by failing to cooperate in Century Surety's investigation of Shayona's claims. Century Surety brings this lawsuit seeking an adjudication of whether Shayona's conduct has breached the policy such that it has no further obligation to Shayona, and whether any such breach was fraudulent or involved the submission of false information so that the coverage of the policy is void and Century Surety is entitled to recover back its claim payments of $777,885.41 and claim expenses of $85,228.69 or, if no such breach has occurred, whether Century Surety owes Shayona anything further for the insurance claims and, if so, how much.

Shayona denies that it has submitted false or fraudulent information to Century Surety or has otherwise breached any term or condition of the insurance policy, and further claims that Century Surety has breached the insurance contract by failing to timely pay the claim and is guilty of bad faith in failing to reasonably and fairly investigate, evaluate, and pay its claim.

Century Surety denies the allegations and claims of Shayona.

2. JURISDICTION. The basis on which the jurisdiction of the Court is invoked.

Jurisdiction is proper under 12 U.S.C. § 1332. Century Surety is an Ohio corporation having its principal place of business within the state of Michigan, and Shayona is an Oklahoma limited liability company having its principal place of business within the state of Oklahoma. The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs, based both upon the remaining balance which Shayona contends it is entitled to recover from Century Surety upon its claims under the policy and the amount which Century Surety contends it may be entitled to recover in claims paid to date in the event that the Court determines Shayona submitted false claim information which voids coverage for these claims.

3. STIPULATED FACTS. List stipulations as to all facts that are not disputed or reasonably disputable, including jurisdictional facts.

1. Century Surety is an Ohio corporation having its principal place of business within the state of Michigan.

2. Shayona is an Oklahoma limited liability company having its principal place of business within the state of Oklahoma.

3. The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs, based upon the remaining balance which Shayona contends it is entitled to recover from Century Surety upon its claims under the policy.

4. The insured property which is the subject of the insurance claims which this lawsuit concerns is located in Shawnee, Oklahoma, and thus venue is proper in the Western District of Oklahoma.

5. Century Surety insured a commercial property owned by Shayona in Shawnee, Oklahoma, known as the Cinderella Inn Hotel, under a Commercial Lines Policy numbered CCP 7367231 from October 19, 2011 through October 19, 2012.

4. LEGAL ISSUES. State separately, and by party, each disputed legal issue and the authority relied upon.

1. Whether Century Surety must prove that it is more probably true than not that Shayona submitted fraudulent claim information in order to void the policy, insofar as such constitutes the breach of a contractual provision, or must prove such by clear and convincing evidence, insofar as such constitutes a claim subject to the standard of proof applicable to common law fraud.

5. CONTENTIONS AND CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES OR OTHER RELIEF SOUGHT.

A. Plaintiff

Century Surety seeks a declaratory judgment determining the following issues:

1. Whether Shayona has committed fraud, or intentionally concealed or misrepresented a material fact, concerning one or both of the claims at issue so as to void its coverage under the Century Surety policy, and to thereby entitle Century Surety to a judgment against Shayona for the amount paid upon those claims and a finding that it has no liability upon the claims; or,

2. Whether Shayona has breached the terms of the policy of insurance such that it is entitled to recover no further policy benefits from Century Surety on one of both of Shayona's claims; or,

3. If Shayona did not breach any term of the policy of insurance which would preclude its recovery upon one or both of its claims, an adjudication of any additional amount to which it is entitled upon the claims beyond that which it has been paid to date.

The amount which Century Surety has paid to date upon the claims, and for which Century Surety seeks a judgment in the event that it is determined that Shayona's conduct has voided the policy as to those claims, is equal to or in excess of $863,114.10.

B. Defendant

Breach of insurance contract seeking damages in excess of $75,000

Bad faith seeking damages in excess of $75,000
